

Peel

TOTAL SUPPORT AND UNDENIABLE ELEGANCE

By Olav Eldøy
2002

Peel has a sculptural expression and with its organic shape it carefully embraces the body and invites relaxation. The chair combines stylish form and function, where the freedom to move is a central design element.

With an integrated tilting mechanism, the chair seamlessly follows the body's natural movement. Peel has an aluminum base and is available in a range of different fabrics and colors.
