

Canvas Office Landscape[®] Group

The power of more than one mind to tackle a problem is well-known. Canvas Group makes its contribution by giving those minds a productive place to work. In an open plan furnished with Canvas Office Landscape, Canvas Group creates spaces for collaboration where it naturally happens—near individual work areas. With tools for sharing, displaying, creating, and storing, Canvas Group gives people what they need to solve together.

Key Features

1. Team Wall and Technology Module create seated, standing, or lounge postures for group collaboration.
2. Upper door units provide a marker board surface and hidden storage for supplies.
3. The lower storage compartment holds larger items such as laptop bags.
4. Shelves facing front and back in dual-sided applications give everyone a place to put things.
5. A technology well discretely brings power and data to the surface and stores cords, so the work area remains uncluttered.
6. Accommodates a variety of technologies depending on the organization's preferences.
